

Biography Assignment

- 1) Choose an important person from Canadian History to study. Choose from this list:

Justin Trudeau	Pauline Johnson
Emily Carr	Lucy Maud Montgomery
Terry Fox	Alexander Graham Bell
Viola Desmond	Justice Bertha Wilson
Craig Kielburger	James Naismith
Laura Secord	Elijah McCoy
Joseph Papineau	Joseph-Armand Bombardier
Adrienne Clarkson	Sir Frederick Banting
General Romeo Dallaire	Jennie Trout
Agnes Macphail	Billy Bishop

- 2) Place 2 pictures of your person on the right front flap of your folder - use graphics, lines, and frames to make it look interesting to readers /5
- 3) Write the name of your person along with BIOGRAPHY using at least 3 features of text to make it special, on the left front flap /5
- 4) On the inside left flap complete a timeline that shows the person's birth, death, and at least 3 interesting dates/events in their life /5
- 5) On the right inside flap, list 10 new words and their meaning or importance that you learned while researching this person /20
- 6) On the inside middle, write 6 important things about your person (be sure to include where they were born/lived in Canada, 2 things they did, what language(s) they spoke, their cultural background, and something that they said ) /20
- 7) On the inside, create a picture that shows what you think is the most important thing they have given Canada. /8
- 8) Make sure you write your name on the front of the folder /2
- 9) Present your research folder to the class using a clear voice. Make sure you show the class each part of the project and explain rather than read what you know about the person you studied /35

/100

--	--

--	--

